

Wednesday, October 1, 2025
2:00 PM ET – 3:00 PM ET

Join our speaker
for a free live video webinar on

October 1, Wednesday
2:00 PM ET – 3:00 PM ET

Church HR administrators have an important role in upholding the Church's mission and values in the workplace. The National Association of Church Personnel Administrators (NACPA) recommends nine ethical principles to guide this work.

Fr. Frank Donio, S.A.C., D.Min., M.S.C.M.

Founding Director
Catholic Apostolate Center
Washington, DC

Fr. Frank Donio, S.A.C., is a respected leader and educator within the Catholic Church, currently serving as the Executive Director of the Conference of Major Superiors of Men (CMSM) and Founding Director of the Catholic Apostolate Center. His extensive contributions to the National Association of Church Personnel Administrators (NACPA) have been particularly impactful, helping to shape the professional development and ethical standards for human resources in Catholic workplaces.

Join Us for an Informative Webinar:

Just Treatment

9 Ethical Principles for Church HR Administrators

1. Just Treatment
2. Mission-Driven Policies
3. Subsidiarity
4. Responsible Stewardship
5. Human Dignity & Family Life
6. Diversity
7. Privacy & Reputation
8. Anti-Racism
9. Dignity of Women

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- HR Directors and all those with human resources responsibilities
- Business and Finance Managers
- Pastors and Principals

National Association of Church Personnel Administrators
2121 Eisenhower Avenue, Suite 200
Alexandria, Virginia 22314
571-551-6064 | www.NACPA.org

CLICK TO REGISTER

This program is pending for one recertification credit for HRCI and SHRM.

In collaboration with

Catholic Apostolate Center
Reviving Faith • Rekindling Charity • Forming Apostles